

Just incase my 1st ltter was not received I am repeating what I had said earlier. I understand the FCC is concidering preempting Indiana's NO CALL law with a watered down version. This is not good. Our NO CALL is working just fine and I do not feel that companies or charities have a right to pester people on the phone. I deal with enough junk mail without having to answer junk phone calls too.